Mary Karen Clardy, Regents Professor of Flute at the University of North Texas, appears as soloist and chamber artist throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico, Britain, Europe, Asia, South America, with numerous performances for the National Flute Association and British Flute Society. Her recordings include Sonatas and Sonatinas, after syrinx...., with October Trio, and The Solo Flute Past to Present, for the EPR label; a solo recital of American Music for the BBC's Radio 3; and orchestral recordings for Pro Arte, Dorian, and Klavier labels. Renowned as a teacher, she regularly presents master classes at home and abroad, and her students are consistent winners of international and national competitions, holding prestigious orchestral and faculty positions throughout the world. An established author, Ms. Clardy's award-winning publications are in multiple reprint.

Flute! Fundamentals for Teachers 2012

Flutists of a varying range of experience can observe master teaching, perform, and interact with artist Mary Karen Clardy and students in daily sessions with audience observation and interaction in each session. Flutists are coached in various performing genres including concert, competition, orchestral audition, and recording techniques, with particular focus on development of musical phrasing and technical consistence in repertoire.

Classes include fundamentals of teaching, including development of musical phrasing, vibrato, tone, technique, and articulation, with particular emphasis on practice methods. Various methods, including Mary Karen Clardy's Flute Fundamentals I and II; Etude Books I and II; Classic Solos 1 and 2; Classic Duets 1 and 2; and Classic Études are used throughout the class to address individual strengths and challenges.

production

In the 21st century, flutists are required to submit recorded performances for private and commercial release, and digital recording technology allows the production of high-quality recordings. Basic recording techniques, microphone placement, planning of recording sessions, and other elements are included in the class, with individual coaching in how to produce a quality recording. Performers are coached in the most effective techniques for the best recorded product.
