performance

Flutists perform in a laboratory setting with audience observation and participation in each session. Flutists are coached in various performing genres including concert, competition, orchestral audition, and recording techniques, with particular focus on development of musical phrasing and technical consistence.

Classes include fundamentals of scales, arpeggios, phrasing, vibrato, and articulation, with particular emphasis on practice methods. Various methods, including Ms. Clardy's Flute Fundamentals I and II; Etude Books I and II; Classic Solos 1 and 2; Classic Duets 1 and 2; and Classic Etudes are used throughout the class to address individual strengths and challenges.

production

In the 21st century, flutists are required to submit recorded performances for private and commercial release, and digital recording technology allows the production of high-quality recordings. Basic recording techniques, microphone placement, planning of recording sessions, and other elements are included in the class with individual coaching in how to produce a quality recording. Performers are instructed in the most effective techniques for the best recorded product.
